RACE QUESTION.

Washington, Jan. 36.—Just at the close of the session of the seaste a speech delivered by Mr. Money. of Mississippi, on the rano question in the south precipitated a heated coloquy between him and Mr. Chandler (rep., N. II.) in which the latter alleged that the southern senators by intemperate statements were reopening the senate after it was supposed to be dead.

ling the whole southern question in the senate after it was supposed to be dead.

The charge which Mr. Chandler particularly criticised was made by Mr. Morgan, of Alabaina, who have reiterated substantially in Mr. Chandler's opinion by other senators, he declared he did not purpose to permit it to go unrefuted. The charge was that the civil war had been precipitated by designing politicians of the north for the purpose of pitting, the slaves on a political and such senate was the senate when the same with characteristic vehemence and aggressiveness, but no reply was offered the includent end ed there.
